

Exeter-Milligan 2nd Grade play
by Leesa K. Bartu

So what does happen when Rudolph gets sick on a foggy Christmas eve? The Exeter-Milligan second grade class told the story in their performance of Randy the Red-Horned Rainmoose by Rick Kilcup.

The second graders performed the play for the kindergarten and first grade classes on Thursday, December 20th.

Randy the Rainmoose, played by Cameron Peters, explained that he was a moose from the rainforest where moss grew on everything even his antlers. He saw a job advertised to work with Santa and jumped at the chance. But the job was for cleaning up not actually pulling the sleigh.

Reports from the Tissue elf (Kaitlyn Vavra) and the Weather elf (Hannah Beethe) confirm to Santa (Patrick Murphy) that Rudolph is sick and there will be fog on Christmas Eve.

When Rudolph loses his voice Santa's messy elves, Hustle (Eric Olsen), Bustle (Derek Axline), and Fred (Joey Bartu), try to help Rudolph get better but to no avail. While cleaning up they discover that Randy's antler's glow. So he can fly and lead the sleigh they give him some magic elixir and save Christmas.

The whole cast sang a song about Randy to the tune of Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer to end the program.
