

Friend's pharmacy victim of break-in

According to Friend Police Chief, Mark McFarland, "On Saturday December 15, 2007, the Friend Police Department received a call from an area resident that Johnson's Pharmacy had been broken into. Upon investigation, it was discovered that during the early morning hours of Saturday December 15th unknown person(s) gained entry into the store by breaking out a side glass window with a blunt object. Once inside the building the unknown person(s) took and removed numerous pharmaceuticals from the store."
